

June 28, 1778

Molly Pitcher (Mary Ludwig Hays) carried water to American soldiers at the Revolutionary War Battle of Monmouth, N. J.

1778

---

The last flotilla of Spanish ships sailed in 1778.

c 1778

1912 Dates J-BK

General Washington discouraged
the custom of ~~duelling~~ dueling.

1778

Feb-6, A treaty of alliance with France was signed

Jun 28, Battle of Monmouth, N.J. British retreated

July 2, Congress returned to Philadelphia

July 3, Indians & Tories massacred the people of Wyoming Valley, Penn.

July 4, Gen. Rogers Clark captured Ft. Kasloshia<sup>Ill.</sup>

Aug 29, British driven back at Battle of Quaker Hill, Rhode Island

Nov 11, Indians & Tories massacred people of Cherry Valley, N.Y.

Nov. 29, British captured Savannah, Ga.

1778

Capt Cook was on his last voyage. He discovered the Hawaiian Islands.

He followed coast of North America and followed it from Columbia north past Canada into Cook Inlet around the Alaska Peninsula, and into Bering Strait. He named Cape Prince of Wales.

He turned around - went back to the Hawaiian Islands where Cook was killed by the natives

Sept 27, 1778

1912 Dates J-BK

RALEIGH

The U.S. frigate Raleigh encountered 2 British ships off the coast of Maine. The Raleigh attempted to escape but was closely followed by the British until she ran aground in PENOBSCOT BAY. Of the Raleigh's crew three were killed; 22 wounded, The others were able to escape.

Aug. 29, 1778

1912 Dates J-BK

QUAKER HILL

Assisted by Gen. Sullivan and a force of 10,000 Americans encamped at PROVIDENCE, Washington resolved to attack the British at Newport, R.I. - On Aug. 5, the French fleet encountered the British ships off Newport, and the latter were burned or sunk to avoid capture. After the engagement, a storm so crippled the French vessels that they were obliged to go to Boston for repairs.

The American forces occupied QUAKER HILL and TURKEY HILL, from which position they were driven by the British and Sullivan retreated to Providence.

1778

1912 Dates J-BK

SAVANNAH, Ga.

During the Revolutionary War, the city was fortified by the Americans. and Colonel Campbell with an army of 2,000 British attacked about 900 Americans in 1778. The latter were defeated and surrendered with supplies